Meeting Schedule (When and Where)	Meeting Abstract
Wednesday, December 17, 2003 2:30 PM – 4:30 PM  NOTE: The Early 2:30 Start  445 Park Avenue, NY, NY 10022 (57th Street and Park Ave.), 10th Floor Web Cast is also available!!	Moving beyond compute intensive applications. Financial markets firms have always pushed the state of the art in distributed computing. From their first use of Unix on the trading floor to their migration from Unix toward Linux firms are continuing the march toward smaller and smaller servers. This migration, while making their technology more responsive and supportive, has left firms with an extremely complex and heterogeneous technology architecture. This talk will look at how financial markets firms have begun to embrace grid technology to both better manage and support their increasingly complex environment.

WEB CAST IS AVAILABLE:
Please contact Michael Di Stefano (mdistefano@integrasoft.com) by December 12th for Web Cast URL and dial in numbers!!
